DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med Staff)
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W P Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE: that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr J Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne: that they prescribe it largely and mean no other than Dr Browne's—See TIMES, July 12, 1864.

The Public therefore are cautioned against using any other than

DR J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, or freshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the nervous system restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body without creating any o fthose unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvelous good effects and wonderful cures while medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma Cramp Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Hysteria, be

The Right Hon Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J T Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec 31, 1864.

From A Montgomery, Esq., late inspector of Hospitals, Bombay: Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy for Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months severe suffering, and when other medicines had failed

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India reports (Dec 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr Collis Brownes' Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan 10, 1866—Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox remedical practitioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.

Extract from the general Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE from which frequen tfatal results have followed

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug 1, 1869, which states that Dr J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne: that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered. Sold in bottles at 1s 1½d, 2s 9d, 4s 6d, and 11s each.

CAUTION—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

THE COMPENSATION.

In a certain work on cookery the housewife is admonished to "first catch the hare, then skin it." The Westminster 'Herald,' disregarding this admonition, has begun to apportion the compensation offered in lieu of the Island Railway before that compensation has come int~ the hands of the Province. We sh not now find fault with the 'Herald' for neglecting its opportunities to advance the material interests of its section by diverting public attention from objects within its reach; but we do strongly object to its production of fallacies as facts, and misquotations as quotations from THE COLONIST. The 'Herald' lays claim to the hare that is still running in the cover as Provincial property, and proceeds at once to prepare the game for general consumption, notwithstanding the very decided expression contained in official documents that the Island Railway was intended as compensation to Victoria for the non commencement of railway work in accordance with the requirements of the Treaty. It would be waste of time to go over all that ground again; but the 'Herald' makes a very palpable misstatement when it says the Island railway belt was "never closed against actual settlers." The belt was reserved by proclamation for Canadian railway purposes in 1872, and the reservation is still in existence. The reservation extends from Victoria to Seymour Narrows. Scores of bona fide settlers have been refused permission at the Land Office to settle on the belt; and although a few have done so, no pre-emption title or certificate of improvement has been issued to them. They have simply "taken the chances" of being eventually able to purchase the land. If this be not "locking up" land we do not know what is. We do not forget that a similar reservation was in force on the Mainland; but it was not, as the Herald asserts, in force two years. The reservation was made in 1872 and was taken off in 1873. Besides, the land reserved was then out of the track of settlement, only four applications being made for permission to settle upon it during the time the reservation existed. The Island railway belt runs through the most thickly settled part of the Province, and scores of settlers have been refused permission to settle there. The cases are scarcely parallel, are they? The Herald next charges that a few days ago we "declared that no one in Victoria cared much about the route of the main line—that you could not find three men there who would sign a petition on the subject." What we did say was that the route formed no portion of the demands of the people of Vancouver Island, because it was not comprised in the Carnarvon Terms; that if the question of route were mixed up with the Carnarvon Terms there could be no union of sentiment between Mainland and Island; that without unanimity there would be failure; and that three men could not be found on the Island to sign a petition for the Carnarvon Terms with a route-stipulation added. Has not the result borne out the assertion? Has even a single man signed a route memorial? But, whilst conceding that much, we distinctly stated that the people of each section would be untrue to themselves did they fail to forcibly depict the advantages of their respective routes—dictation, of course, being impossible, as the selection of the route was purely an engineering and not a political question. So far as Mr. Elliott and his Ministers are concerned we know that they are not pledged to accept compensation, as the Herald says. We do know, however, that the party the Herald supports with great zeal arranged the Carnarvon Terms, and that the Herald, whilst still acknowledging allegiance to that party, has declared the Carnarvon bargain "off," and has offered to accept seven dollars and fifty cents as compensation in full for railway delays. Do Westminster and Yale intend to allow one of their mouth-pieces to barter away Provincial rights for $7 50?

INFORMATION WANTED.

The leading article of yesterday's edition of our contemporary is based on the following:

"Mr. Mackenzie, in his last public utterance at Watford, said: 'Sir John says we have changed our policy. Well, sir, we have not. Our policy in the first place was not to build the road; but by their bargain to build with Columbia they forced us to do what we could to keep that bargain.'"

Now, Mr. Mackenzie either made the statement "our policy in the first place was NOT to build the road," or he did not. We have examined the report of the Watford speech as published by the 'Standard' and do not find the remark therein. We have examined our account of the Premier's speech and find nothing of the kind there. We have examined the reports of the same speech in the leading Canadian papers, and all are innocent of the sentence quoted. We therefore think the public will agree with us when we say that it is incumbent on our contemporary to state the name of the journal that attributed to Mr. Mackenzie the remark. For one, we do not believe Mr. Mackenzie ever made it, and if it proves to be—what we believe it to be—a forgery, another instance of the disreputable tactics of the organ of the Party that killed the Island Railway in the Senate will be exposed. In the report of Mr. Mackenzie's Watford speech, as published by the 'Standard,' the Premier is made to speak confidently of the early building of the railway. If our contemporary has a version of the Premier's speech that will bear a different construction it is his duty to publish it. As he has put the case before the country there is room for the grave suspicion that words have been put in the Premier's mouth that he did not utter—a piece of political roguery quite within the range of the 'Standard's' customary tactics.

IMAGINATIVE.

In its leading article on Tuesday our local contemporary took Lord Dufferin severely to task for having quoted our Indian population as high as sixty thousand; and it went on to say, "Mr. John Robson, in the Confederation debate in 1870, raised Lord Dufferin's estimate to ninety thousand and defied contradiction;" and this estimate it says it always attributed to ignorance or an attempt to deceive the Ottawa Government. Now this is pure fabrication—the output of a diseased and malignant mind. The Confederation debates of 1870 were reported and published in official form, and we challenge our contemporary to produce therefrom anything whatever tending to bear out or in the least justify its gratuitous assertion. It is quite true however that DeCosmos, on the occasion referred to, did move for the construction of the Railway via Fraser River with the Pacific terminus at Yale.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

EASTERN STATES.

NORWICH, Conn., Oct. 3.—The town goes Republican by 571 majority against 285 last year.

HARTFORD, Oct. 3.—The annual town elections throughout Connecticut took place to-day. As far as heard from the Republicans made very decided gains.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Times Cleveland correspondent, after a careful study of the subject and many journeys over the State, predicts that Ohio will give the Republicans 10,000 to 30,000 majority next week.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 3.—Reports from the principal points at 3 p. m., indicate heavy Republican gains everywhere over the election of 1875. The chairman of the Republican State Committee claims the State by about 20,000 majority and the Legislature by a majority of 40 on joint ballot. Comparisons will be made with the vote of 1873 when Patterson, Democrat, for Congress was elected by 2163 majority. Arapajo county has elected the entire Republican ticket by a majority of 300, being a Republican gain of 648. The Republicans have undoubtedby carried Colorado by a decided majority and elected the entire State ticket and secured the Legislature by a majority in both branches. This Legislature elects two U. S. Senators and their Presidential electors.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—To-day's admissions, 81,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3 —The Moody & Sankey meeting to-night indicated the rapid growth of the revival interest. Eight thousand people were present. General confirmation of ministers and Christian workers from the whole north-west at an early day is in contemplation.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—The unfinished race at Mystic Park was completed to-day. Comet won; time, 2.22½, 2.21¼, 2.26½, 2.25, 2.23.

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 3.—This city has contributed $73,225 to the yellow fever sufferers.

CANADA.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The Tribune's Ottawa special: Rich veins of silver are said to have been discovered in the vicinity of Pigeon River on the line of the Canada Pacific Railroad.

EUROPE.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—At a meeting of the Reform Club in Manchester last night the Right Hon. John Bright made a speech on the Eastern Question, and said that he thought a meeting of Parliament was desirable. It would result in a new policy, probably under a new Ministry, and would shape the future policy of the country with the solemn decision that the blood and treasure of England shall never again be wasted in behalf of the Ottoman power. Turkey should be left to the fate which Providence decrees for corruption.

A Vienna correspondent of the Times says an answer drawn up by Count Andrassy to the Russian letter was submitted to the Emperor of Austria on Tuesday for his sanction. Andrassy had already communicated his views on the question to Francis Joseph, who had approved of them. The note, therefore, will undoubtedly receive the Imperial sanction, and will be ready for the Prussian envoy to take with him when he leaves on the 5th inst. The Russian letter is the preliminary introduction to peace proposals. These proposals culminate in the declaration that the application and enforcement of the reforms proposed by the powers cannot be estimated to Turkey. Therefore the powers are invited to come to an understanding about the guarantees to be demanded to secure the application of reforms promised.

ATHENS, Oct. 3.—A meeting attended by 8,000 persons was held here at which the intolerable position of the Greek provinces of Turkey was discussed. A proposal for the augmentation of the Greek army and navy was enthusiastically greeted.

City Police Court.

(Before his Honor H. C. Courtney.)

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 4th 1876.

William Smith, a youth of about 19 years, charged on Monday with being a vagrant was now charged by Mr. George C. Keays with writing threatening letters to him, and threatening to kill him in said letters.

One of the communications was embodied in the information and is of the most disgusting nature, abounding in the vilest epithets, accusing Mr. Keays of neglecting to pay prisoner 3 months' wages, and threatening to kill him.

The prisoner, who has a most repulsive countenance and is reputed to be a bad character, pleaded guilty to the charge and was fully committed for trial at the Assizes.

DESERTION.

Charles Williams, charged with desertion from the bark Lady Head, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to 12 weeks imprisonment, to be delivered to the Captain of the vessel at any date during that time he might be required, and in the event of another man being employed by the Captain in his stead, the extra wages of such man to be deducted from defendant's wages.

George Inman, also charged with desertion from the same vessel in company with the last prisoner received a similar sentence.

'RED-TOP' ON TRIAL.

Peter Martin was then charged by Frank Beegan with having assaulted him with intent to do him grevious bodily offence.

The information of complainant states that on the 21st day of September, 1876, he was acting as a duly sworn in special constable, and was bringing the prisoner down from Cassiar to be lodged in jail here. About noon on that day complainant in company with H. Richardson, and Mr. Hall, two Indians, several clootchmen and prisoner went ashore from a canoe on the Stickeen, about 15 miles from the north of the river. Complainant had a shot-gun which he placed against a tree on shore; the prisoner who was handcuffed seized it, and backing into the woods with it said "you s— of a b—— I've got you." Complainant picked up an axe and ran after him and Richardson handed complainant a revolver. Prisoner said to Richardson "Harry, I don't want to kill you, but I want to kill that s—of a b—— Beegan." Richardson then went away and complainant fired two shots at the prisoner, and called on Richardson to bring more ammunition. Prisoner said to Richardson "if you do I'll shoot you and I dont want to." Prisoner then turned and fired at complainant who rushed at him and was seriously assaulted by the prisoner with the butt of the gun, sustaining a broken shoulder and a severe scalp wound.

Complainant sworn:—I got a cut on my head, and my right shoulder was broken. The injuries were inflicted on me by the butt of the gun—[gun produced; a single barreled shot-gun, with butt severed from barrel, and iron work bent and doubled up.] I do not know whether the assault took place on American territory or not.

His Honor here sent for D. Eckstein, Esq. U. S. Consul, Wm. Fisher, Esq. J.P., also occupied a seat on the bench.

The prisoner claimed to be an American citizen and asked if complainant had produced any medical certificate that his shoulder bone was broken. The Court said that it was a matter of no consequence prisoner would have every opportunity of asking questions after the evidence had been given against him.

Complainant:—The gun was perfectly sound before prisoner got hold of it, but it was smashed over my head by him.

Prisoner asked the Court under what law he was being tried.

The Court informed the prisoner that he was being tried under 32d Aug 33d Vic. cap. 20.

Prisoner:—Well, does that relate to British Territory alone?

The Court:—Yes.

Prisoner to Complainant:—Were you sober at the time of the assault?

Complainant:—Perfectly so.

Prisoner:—Did you not take some whisky from Buck's place on the day in question?

Complainant:—No, I did not,

Prisoner:—Well, where did you get that bottle of whisky which you were drinking in the canoe the second time we got in.

Complainant:—I was bleeding profusely and I asked Richardson if he had any brandy, and he handed me some in a small flask.

Prisoner:—Where did you get that round bottle of whisky which you drank out of at the mouth of the river?

Complainant:—I do not remember anything about a bottle there.

Prisoner:—Remember there is such a thing as perjury in British Columbia!

Complainant:—I do not know if the siwashes in the canoe had any whisky. I drew a revolver on you the second day we were out when you attempted to run away. You were on horseback and so was I. I did not draw it on you at any other time, except when you assaulted me.

Prisoner:—Well, you did not do much with it even when you had a good chance. Did you not play "sinche" with me at Telegraph Creek until you got drunk.

Complainant—No; nor did I sit up all that night drinking whisky; I was watching you; I had to ask some of your intimate friends to leave as I thought it was too late for them to be around you; I did not stand over you with a drawn revolver at Telegraph Creek when you were in bed and wanted to get out, nor did I say "you s—— of a b —— if you move I'll shoot you;" I only fired at you when you ran away into the bush.

Prisoner—You came pretty near combing my hair once, didn't you?

Complainant—Yes; but I am glad I did not kill you now.

Prisoner—Oh pshaw! you would have done it if you could.

Complainant—When you got hold of the shotgun you were handcuffed; you backed off and said, "now, you s—— of a b——, I've got you;" I picked up an axe and went after you; I never let you out of my sight except when you got behind a tree to fire at me; I was not drunk at all during the trip; I had my authority from the magistrate at Cassiar to convey you to Victoria prison.

Prisoner contended that complainant had no authority to convey him through Alaska Territory and cross-questioned the complainant at great length as to whether the firing and assault took place in American or British territory.

The Court took it for granted that the assault took place in American territory; but said that point would rest with a higher Court to decide.

The Court asked where Richardson, the other witness in the case, was.

Supt. Todd replied that he had been told to attend, but could not be found; he was supposed to be hiding somewhere.

His Honor—Then I shall adjourn the case until 11 o'clock to-morrow.

The Court then rose and the prisoners were removed to the jail.

The Chilliwhack Agricultural Show will come off on the 19th inst., so that all intending to exhibit should order themselves accordingly. Hon. E. Brown has contributed a large sum towards making the Exhibition a success.

The road and bridge repairs on the wagon-road about Chilliwhack are completed. We are told that the next job in hand will be the False Creek bridge.

The Fick family are rapidly recovering from small-pox; the Indian woman Godfreid died on Saturday last.

(Herald.)

The farmers of Sumas are taking advantage of fine weather and moonlight by running their mowing machines night and day. They are putting up a quantity of first class meadow hay, on which to keep their cattle fat during the winter.

Mr. J. S. Knevett has disposed of his book and stationery business to Mr. W. H. Keary, who has been for some years connected with the Herald office.

Mr. Armstrong's lumber mill is now pretty completely fitted up with the machinery requisite for turning out first-class lumber. The planing machine was erected on Monday.

Mr. E. Dewdney's surveying party will begin work at Sumas to-morrow or next day.

The run of salmon continues and canning establishments are very busy.

THE EXHIBITION TO-DAY.—It is almost superfluous to remind the public of the Agricultural and Horticultural Exhibition which takes place to-day at Philharmonic Hall, and on the adjoining premises known as Davies' cattle sale-yard; but in case the event should have escaped the memory of any citizen, it may again be stated that the public will be admitted to the show at noon and that the judges will commence to examine and make their awards on the various exhibits at 10 o'clock this morning. At an early hour last evening upwards of 200 entries had been made in the several classes, and it is expected that the exhibition will be equal to any which has preceded it. The price of admission to non-subscribers will be 50 cents each.

SAANICH ROAD.—A great deal of work has been done in the repair of the East and West roads of Saanich District, and those thoroughfares are now in a better condition than ever before. The section between Bryant's to Simpson's is now under contract. The present road is a disgrace to civilization and was purposely left in an untravelable condition by the late Chief Commissioner to "punish" the Saanich people for not returning members to support his Government! The present Government have improved the roads in every part of the country without pausing to enquire if the person the value of whose property would be enhanced by the improvement was a friend or foe in politics.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer Enterprise arrived here at half past three o'clock yesterday afternoon from New Westminster heavily laden with freight, consisting principally of 900 cases of salmon from Deas's fishery for shipment per bark Lady Head to England and 40 head of cattle from the Semilkameen for Messrs. Goodacre & Dooley. The following passengers and the lower Fraser mails were also on board: Mr. and Mrs. Wells, Capt. J. Irving, J. H. Brodie, A. J. McLennan, J. Todd, Messrs. Allison, Arthur, Churton, Williams and Ross.

FROM THE EAST COAST.—The steamer Cariboo-Fly arrived here at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Nanaimo and East Coast settlements with the mails and following passengers: Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fawcett, Maj. Roscoe, M. P., Rev. Mr. Sexsmith, Messrs. C. F. Robinson, Woods, Harvey, Higginson, Howay, Alexander, Lowery, Harrold, Bush, Ganner, Baker, Wanklin and several others.

TENDERS for the construction of Clinton Court-house were as follows: W. Lorimer (withdrawn), $2585; James Murie (awarded) $2985; J. L. Reed, $3725; R. T. Ward, $3740; J. P. Burgess, $3800; J. Bennett, $5500; W. Howay, $7500.

LECTURE.—A lecture will be delivered in the First Presbyterian Church, Pandora street, this evening (Thursday) by the Rev. John Reid; subject—the Bible, its own interpreter. The public are invited to attend.

PUGET SOUND.—The steamer Eliza Anderson left for Olympia at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The North Pacific will arrive to-day at 2 p.m. with the overland mails, etc.

TO SPORTSMEN.—Just received from Eley Bros. London, central-fire cartridge cases $1 per 100; to be had of Henry Short, gun store Fort street. 1w*

BALL.—The bachelors of New Westminster propose to give their annual ball in about a fortnight.

THE steamer Grappler sails at 7 o'clock to-morrow for Fort Wrangel.

City Council.

A meeting of the City Council was held last night. Present:—His Worship the Mayor in the Chair and Councillors Gowen, Trounce, Williams, Gosnell, Marvin and Vigelius.

CLANDESTINE WORK.

On a motion being put to adopt the minutes of last meeting Coun. Trounce asked if there had not been some business transacted at a late hour last meeting which should have been done in public. He had waited until 11 o'clock that night but he understood next day that the Council after rising sat in committee again and had not adjourned till several hours after that time. He learnt that at that secret meeting, important work had been done and he now wanted to know why that business did not appear on the minutes.

Coun. Williams said Coun. Trounce ought to have known that the Council intended to "set" very late. They had only adjourned for refreshments for a few minutes and Coun. Trounce should have been on hand to meet again.

Coun. Trounce replied that was not the question at all. In secret he understood that it had been resolved to carry the water-pipes across James Bay. An arrangement of a very doubtful nature had been made with a private individual, in spite of a resolution which asserted that a report as to cost, etc., should be considered by the Council before any action being taken. That report had never been presented and the arrangement had been clandestinely made with closed doors almost at daybreak on Saturday last. The proceeding was most irregular, underhand and to the detriment of the city.

The Mayor—That assertion is false.

Coun. Trounce—I maintain it is true.

Coun. Williams—I call him to order.

The Mayor—Let me explain parliamentary usage.

Coun. Trounce—Thank you I don't desire any such explanation.

The Mayor—The motion before the House is for the adoption of the minutes. Coun. Trounce, your objection is overruled and the minutes are adopted.

Coun. Trounce—That's just what I expected. But I maintain the clandestine business should appear on the minutes. (Hear, hear.)

FINANCE.

An account from Mrs. Jessie Brown for the rent of a house recently occupied by a person afflicted with small-pox was rejected by the Council on the ground of "no jurisdiction," a course pursued with minor bills for water, etc., supplied small-pox patients. The following accounts were however passed to the Finance Committee for payment: Labor on the streets, $38; A. E. Mordaunt, $9; Victoria Gas Co., $234 50; T.N. Hibben & Co., $30 87; THE COLONIST, $8; John Black, $2 50; Brown & White, $3.

The Committee on the Fire Department real-estate purchase recommended the advance of $500, chargeable to suspense account, to complete the purchase of a lot on Yates street for the Deluge Engine Co., and asked for further time to report on the erection of additional hydrants, etc.

Report received and recommendation adopted.

On motion of Coun. Trounce one week's further time was granted for the preparation of the quarterly financial statement.

The Mayor—The assertion in THE COLONIST this morning that no proper financial statements have been published is false. The whole article is a tissue of falsehoods (laughter). When I said the City was bankrupt they took it up in a wrong light. What I meant was that if a legitimate claim of $10 was made just at that time on the Council it could not have been met (sensation). But of course the taxes are coming in now.

Coun. Williams—Why, since you made that statement, I have signed cheques for fifteen or sixteen hundred dollars and they have all been paid. But we don't pay no attention to what the COLONIST says. Them that wrote that article this morning isn't to be believed. None of us Councillors comes here to do nothing in the dark; no! Sir, we dont want to do nothing behind the curtain.

The Mayor:—No indeed, nor we don't get no balm?

Coun. Williams then moved a resolution for the erection of several additional lamps.

Coun. Trounce said that after the "exhibition" at last meeting, the motion appeared most absurd and he hoped the Mayor would not put the question. Before he—Coun. Trounce—voted for another lamp he wanted to have a statement showing the number of lamps in each ward, so that fair distribution might be secured in future.

The Mayor:—Yes, I think such a statement is desirable.

The Mayor, however, put a motion for the erection of a lamp on the corner of View and Douglas streets, which was carried, and the Council then adjourned.

A SPILL.—The stage returning from the Saanich Agricultural Show on Tuesday night met with a slight accident which resulted in shaking up several of the occupants of the vehicle. Fortunately no bones were broken and after a brief delay the passengers arrived safely in town.

ROAD TRAFFIC.—Between the 24th and 30th of last month 113,200 lbs. of freight left Yale for the upper country.

Nanaimo.

[Free Press.]

The large new locomotive for the Wellington Colliery is now on the road from San Francisco on board the bark Wm. H. Dietz. This locomotive was built at Philadelphia and is pronounced a beautiful and powerful machine.

Mr. Bulkley has nearly completed his large new shutes on Cameron Island. When finished these shutes will hold 700 tons of coal and will greatly facilitate the loading of vessels.

The output of the Harewood Mine on Saturday was 111 tons 18 cwt. This speaks well for the management of the mine, which is as yet only in its infancy.

In spite of the wild and exaggerated rumors that have been circulated within the past few days, there is only one additional case in this city of the smallpox disease since our last issue, viz: the eldest son of Mr. H. Cooper. This case is similar to Mr. Randle's daughter—varioloid in its mildest type. The patients are getting well and a number of Indians have been vaccinated.

The ship Frank Austin, is on the way from Acapulco, Mexico, for a cargo of Douglas coal. The steamship St. Paul is due from the North for a similar purpose. The bark Revere at the Wellington Colliery and the bark H. Buck at the Douglas pit wharf have nearly completed their respective cargoes.

The large boiler for the Wellington Colliery was successfully taken to its place near the Wellington mine on Saturday.

A parochial association in aid of the Mission fund of the diocese (Church of England) has been established, with Mr. James Harvey, Treasurer and Mr. Young Secretary.

The Good Templars—Onward Lodge—gave an entertainment last week as a welcome to Bros. Raybould and Gough on their return from Portland.

In future the mail steamer Cariboo-Fly will arrive at and depart from Gordon & Co.'s wharf on every Comox trip, and the alternate week, when she makes two trips per week from Victoria, the steamer will arrive at and depart from Hirst's new wharf.

Arrival of the Dakota.

The steamship Dakota, Capt. Morse, arrived from San Francisco at 9 o'clock last night. She left the wharf at one p. m. on Saturday last, but owing to some derangement of her machinery put back and sailed again on Sunday morning. She has 22 cabin and 29 steerage passengers, 230 tons of cargo for Victoria, and 30 cabin and 30 steerage passengers and 200 tons of cargo in transitu. Second day out the Dakota passed H. M. S. Amethyst bound up. Experienced a thick fog with smooth sea and no wind since leaving.

ACCIDENT.—Dr. Price was kicked by a horse yesterday and sustained severe injuries to his right arm and head. Dr. J. B. Matthews rendered the medical assistance necessary.

INCORRECT.—Dr. Barnard has not gone to New Westminster, and has no intention of going.

A Crown Colony.

(S. F. Bulletin)

For several years past the policy of the British Government toward its colonies has been one of indifference. The idea, when embodied in the language of every day use, was that they are old enough to take care of themselves. Further, that if they did not like the restraints which the mother country deemed it judicious to place upon them, they could set up for themselves, but this last in no very tangible form. This policy has been in marked contrast with that which prevailed one hundred years ago, and which, in the case of the American colonies, insisted that a refusal to submit to oppression should be severely punished. But the colonial system of the present day is perhaps more rhetorical than real. No colony has so far attempted to withdraw itself from under the wing of England, so it is impossible to say what would be done in that case. But the colony of Vancouver's Island [?] has been talking that way for some time past. It is dissatisfied because the railroad, which was the price demanded for entering the Canadian Dominion, is not to be built. Lord Dufferin, on the occasion of his late visit, informed the people of that island in firm but temperate language, what would happen to them if they took that step. The main land appears to be staunch and true. Railroad or no railroad, it has no intention of changing its present political status. It is only Vancouver's Island that is exhibiting revolutionary tendencies. Lord Dufferin told the island people that if they should secede they would lose the postoffice and the other advantages which they now enjoy, and would sink to the level of a Crown colony. Such a colony is one in which the Crown has about all the rights and the people none. It is a state infinitely below that of our Territories, for they are, after all, only nominally dependent on the general Government. They enjoy all the local rights which are acknowledged anywhere in the United States. But the Crown Colony of the English statesman is a piece of territory of which the home Government assumes unrestricted rule. There is no local control of the postoffice or other appliances of government.

This is a condition into which Vancouver will not thoughtlessly plunge. There is no answer to the query if not liking the Crown Colony business, it should set up for itself, what would happen? But we do not know that any is necessary. The whole history of the British Empire furnishes it without any uncertain sound.

English Mail

The gossip-writer of the Liverpool "Courier" says:—Bad news comes to hand respecting poor Sergeant Ballantine, of whom the public has heard little since his return from the Guicowar's trial in Hindostan. The truth is, that Indian trip, with all its excitement and triumph, knocked the learned advocate completely over. Sergeant Ballantine should have remembered he was nearly seventy years of age; and, after the life of desperate work and desperate pleasures which he has led, he was much too old to overtax his energies. Lately the poor man has, I regret to say, suffered from several bad fits of an epileptic nature, and has been obliged to refuse most work and to hand over his briefs in some instances to his son, Mr. Walter Ballantine, a rising man at the bar. This intelligence is distressing, as the sergeant's constitution was such a wonderful one, and many there are who miss his well known figure, with the gay flower in his button-hole bounding along, as was his daily wont, to the Garrick Club. So safe, indeed, was his life deemed prior to his visit to India, that it was made the subject of many an annuity by investors in such securities on the Stock Exchange; one reason of this choice, however, being that Sergeant Ballantine could not die without all the world knowing it, and thus the fraud, practised in the case of private individuals of pretending them to be alive and getting payment, was rendered impossible.

It appears that Lord Ribblesdale, Earl Russell's step son, committed suicide by discharging a pocket pistol into his mouth, but no explanation why he made away with himself has been published.

The London tradesmen are delighted with the bad weather, as tourists are returning in shoals.

It is stated that one result of the recent committee on the cavalry equipments will be the substitution of the carbine for the pistol in the case of lancer regiments.

H. E. writes to the Times as follows in connection with the dangers attending cleaning out old wells: "Twice in my lifetime I have had occasion to have wells on my premises cleared out, and in fifteen minutes this was done at each well by throwing down large sheets of paper in full blaze of fire; the foul air rushes out in a perfect volume of wind in a quarter of an hour. I went down a well thirty feet to fifty feet deep after trying the usual candle; one well was 100 feet deep."

Thompson, the well-known light-weight jockey, has died of smallpox at Middleham. He was only nineteen years of age.

In answer to a congratulatory address by the Edinburgh Workingmen's Association, the Earl of Beaconsfield says: "The working classes are now no longer severed from the other classes of this country. Their social and political rights and interests are alike the same, and, therefore, they are content and happy. Proud of their country, a free and united people will encounter without fear the trial which, perhaps, awaits them."

The Ministerial Crisis in British Columbia.

[Toronto Globe.]

The change in the British Columbia Cabinet arising out of the resignation of Hon. Mr. Brown is significant of the division of sentiment that exists in the Province with regard to the "Carnarvon Terms," the fulfilment of which is being made a sine qua non by one section of the community. Mr. Brown is a mainland member, and represents the City of New Westminster in the Local Assembly. The mainlanders are just as anxious as the people of Vancouver's Island for the Pacific Railway to be constructed. They are, probably, with their Island compatriots, a unit in demanding compensation from Canada for the delays that have taken place in the fulfilment of the original bargain. But the form of compensation that would suit them best would, probably, be an adequate money payment rather than a railroad of purely local importance like the one from Esquimalt to Nanaimo. Mr. Elliott, the Premier of British Columbia, is one of the members for Victoria, and we can well understand, therefore, the embarrassing position in which the local cry places him. He feels bound, apparently, to press for the fulfilment of the Carnarvon compromise; Mr. Brown, on the other hand, objects to insisting on this particular mode of settlement while attempts are being made to solve the difficulty in any other manner.
